

Contaminated Land

CQG Consulting provides contaminated land and site assessment services to a wide cross section of public and private sector clients.

- Environmental Management Register (EMR) & Contaminated Land Register (CLR) searches;
- Due diligence site investigations for property transfers (sale and lease);
- Preliminary contaminated site assessments;
- Detailed contaminated site investigations;
- Preparation of Site Management Plans (SMP) and Remediation Action Plans (RAP);
- Qld Department of Environment and Heritage Protection (DEHP), local government and relevant government agency liaison;
- In-situ metals assessment of soils, using field portable Ray Fluorescence methods;
- Soil, sediments, dust and groundwater sampling;
- Groundwater sampling and analysis;
- Chemical spill incident investigation and monitoring;
- Acid Sulfate Soils investigation & management; and
- Applications to remove sites from registers.

Contaminated site investigations and remediation projects typically follow these steps:

Stage 1:
Preliminary Investigation

Stage 2:
Detailed Site Investigation

Stage 3: Remediation

Stage 4: Validation

Qualified and experienced land contamination specialists.

