

Consulting

We listen, we understand, we deliver.

Mining

CQG Consulting offers a range of engineering, planning and environmental services to the mining industry.

Our areas of environmental and planning expertise include:

- Environmental Impact Assessment;
- Initial Advice Statements;
- Environment Protection and Biodiversity Conservation Act Referrals;
- Applications for Environmentally Relevant Activities; and
- Environmental Impact Statements;
- Development of Environmental Management Plans;
- Auditing of Environmental Authorities, Development Approvals and Environmental Management Plans;
- Development and auditing of Environmental Management Systems;
- Routine site monitoring including groundwater, surface water and air quality;
- Weed and pest management plans;
- Erosion and sedimentation control plans;
- Waste management advice;
- Site contamination investigations;
- Fauna spotter catcher services;
- Ecological assessments;
- Ecosystem function analysis;

- Rehabilitation plans and monitoring;
- Development and delivery of training packages; and
- Community consultation.

Need additional staff?

We can provide experienced staff to meet your short and long term site requirements via temporary secondment or day rate agreements.

CQG also provides specialist engineering services including:

- Concept designs and feasibility studies;
- Project management services;
- Spatial GIS mapping;
- Asset management services;
- Capital works planning, budgeting, assessment and implementation;
- Due diligence and facility assessments; and
- Saline waste disposal and evaporation basin advice.

www.cqgroup.com.au

T. 07 4922 9252 E. admin@cqgroup.com.au

Planning | Environmental | Engineering