Dear Sir/Madam

CQ Consulting display a continuously high level of professionalism in their interactions and uphold a consistent attention to detail. The staff has a strong work ethic, which is seen through their ability to both meet and surpass deadlines and project requirements, to and above the standards required. Through prompt and effective communication, CQ has ensured the development of a strong business relationship with Boulder Steel Limited.

Their proficiency in achieving work objectives makes it a pleasure to engage in business with such a consulting group, and the reliability of them to produce what they say they will re-enforces a level of trust that is rare in such an economic climate.

Cathee Miller and the team at CQ have proven themselves to be flexible and responsive to Boulder's - Gladstone Steel Plant Project needs, as well as being suggestive and proactive in finding solutions when unforeseen situations arise.

We are pleased to, and we have recommended CQ Consulting to other project proponents.

Yours faithfully
Boulder Steel Limited
